

Hello Everyone,

By now you know that there will NOT be a train show in Perry, GA. this year. HOWEVER, there is the Southeast Garden Railroad Show in Dalton, GA. on May 1 & 2, 2009.

Check out their website at www.segrs.com

Train displays, clinics, layout tour (on May 3rd), model contest, and a banquet are planned. The website is packed with information, including directions. There are also lots of other places to visit in the area. Tampa Bay Division co-sponsors a train display with the Emerald Coast Garden Railway Club. There will be Georgia Garden Railway Society layout tours on Sunday, May 3rd.

It should be a great weekend! We're going and hope to see you there!
